CHANGES TO REGISTRATIONS AND LOCKS, RELOCKS, REPRICING AND CANCELLATION POLICIES

- ALL CHANGES SUBJECT TO APPROVAL AND POTENTIAL REPRICING BY GATEWAY
- Changes that will incur additional fees:
 - As an approved lender with Gateway Mortgage, it is your obligation to send all requested documentation in a timely manner to complete the full purchase of this loan by the Purchase by Date. Failure to do so could result in extensive fees or repurchase of the loan
 - Imaged files must be received by 3:00 PM CT on the lock expiration date
 - Please utilize and include the TVLB Client Checklist with every submission package. All applicable documents listed on the checklist are to be included in your submission package
 - Failure to submit a loan according to Gateway's TVLB Client Checklist may subject the client to repricing. Once delivered, loan becomes Mandatory and conditions must be cleared within Gateway's 30-day Purchase by Date. Any delays may result in additional fees
 - The purchase approval process requires TWO review audits. The first is the pre-purchase Audit review and the second is the post-purchase Audit review. After Gateway Purchases your loan, a final audit is performed by TVLB prior to approval. This audit may result in additional conditions. You may be required to provide additional information as a result of either or both reviews
 - If additional items are required, your assigned Client Liaison will contact you via email. Delays in providing documentation requested to complete the purchase at either review stage could result in extensive fees that can compound depending on the time past the Purchase by Date
 - Closely monitor conditions and Purchase by Date on the GEMS portal.
 - Conditions resolved prior to 12:00 CT on the Purchase by Date will not incur any additional late suspense fees
 - If conditions are not resolved by the Purchase by Date, you may incur additional TVLB imposed late fees. The Client Liaison will contact you to confirm your acceptance of the fees. Once fees are accepted a corrected Purchase Advice and wiring instructions will be issued based on the fees
 - If Client will not accept additional fees, they have an option to repurchase loan
 - If the loan file is not purchased by TVLB prior to Purchase by Date and the loan is cleared within 30 days, the price of the loan is adjusted downward by one basis point per day
 - If the loan file has been pended by TVLB for a period of 30 calendar days past the Purchase by Date, the loan file will be repriced at worse case of current market or original rate plus accrued pending fees
 - Clients also have the option of repurchasing the loan if conditions are not cleared within 30 days following the Purchase by Date
 - If post purchase conditions are not cleared within 45 days following the Purchase by Date, the Client will be asked to repurchase the loan
 - If loan closes and is not locked properly prior to closing, the loan will be subject to the 1% of the loan amount for no lock fee in addition to any applicable buy down and pending fees at that time TVLB Admin is notified.
 - If loan closes at the wrong interest rate and the note rate is lower than the TVLB locked rate, then loan is subject to worse case pricing.
 - If a loan closed at higher interest rate than the TVLB locked rate then the loan must reclose at the TVLB interest rate

TEXAS VETERANS LAND BOARD (TVLB)— PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

CHANGES TO REGISTRATIONS AND LOCKS, RELOCKS, REPRICING AND CANCELLATION POLICIES (con't)

- Relock(s) and Cancellations are at the discretion of Gateway
 - Loans in process (with the same property address) may not be re-locked until the initial VLB lock has expired with the TVLB Administrator. Contact the lock desk to confirm the date the loan may be eligible for re-lock. A new registration will be required at that time and the loan CANNOT have closed prior to re-locking the rate. NOTE: The rate stays with the veteran for one year. If re-locking within one year of the initial lock, the new loan will be subject to worse case pricing.
 - If original lock expired within 1 year of the TVLB Lock Expiration date, the new loan will be subject to worse case pricing
 - Locks expired more than 1 year go to current TVLB pricing.
 - Loans in Pended or Suspend status greater than 30 days from the original Lock Expiration Date may be subject to “Ineligible for Purchase” status change
- Property Address Change
 - Borrowers are permitted to change property address one time only within the one-year period following the original lock date at current market price. The original rate lock must have been expired for at least 30 days before a new rate lock may be issued. Any application for new rate lock following a change of property address will be considered a new loan application. If a loan undergoing the property address change process requires a rate lock before the required 30-day period passed, the rate lock will receive worst case pricing
